Law enforcement regularly cruise our site, most of the time seeking information just like the rest of us, but they could just as easily be the one offering you 80mg Oxycontin for 5 dollars. Very very high family quality, between a hit, a strip, and a sheet. He never made mention of what city or region of MA. If you want to ask about prices because you are looking for someone to purchase drugs from, I suggest rethinking your intentions. Its because dilaudid is everywhere and is cheaper and better. Yeah, I'm the "price master. DO NOT post it in a public area. The Price Thread only exists as a research reference for anyone wanting to study price trends and trends in drug availability in various areas. Bluelight is not here to assist anyone in buying or selling drugs. This is how shitty Massachusetts is. You get what you pay for. Only around once in a while. I guess I'll contribute to make up for my clutter: For the last 2 years the quality has been piss poor locally. But, if you want to find prices for your city, you'll have to search this thread or one of the archived Price Threads to see if someone already has. Points are often skimpy and potency is horrible from the street. Looks like it's time for one of my bi-weekly Price Thread Rule Reminder If anyone who has posted in this thread receives messages from other members asking you to sell them drugs or asking you if you'd like to purchase drugs, please report it to the Other Drug Staff via Private Message.

Jan 10, - My husband is addicted to pain pills and owes drug dealers money. How much could he possibly owe? And should I be concerned that a pill dealer could come and hurt my family.
