If possible Swim weighs lbs. If you take enough codeine, it is as good as most Rx opiates. Seriously though, just drink the syrup. SWIM affords you no protection legally we know its you that you're talking about and so does everybody reading this. Codeine works well for some people and doesn't work well for others do to differences in metabolism. And is 5' 3". Most people without a tolerance take between mg of codeine. According to this resource [http: If you have a cough I'd take it for that, or even just save it for the future when you have a cough or a hangover. There shouldn't be small chunks in the bottle, I recommend shaking up the bottle to dissolve these chunks. Swim wants to know how much she would have to take to get a nice high from it. That's really not great medicine for getting high on at all. Don't try and drink the whole bottle or something if 15mL doesn't do anything for you. Codeine is pretty weak unless you've never taken anything before and that's a lot of APAP in that. Swim is not experienced with this and thanks you for your answer. Assuming you have no tolerance, I'd start with There is also small chunks in the bottle and she was wondering what these are. Also, don't forget the Jolly Rancher. We don't use SWIM here, and we don't discussion on "how to get high". If you're dead set on mixing this with Sprite to make "purple drank" or "lean" or whatever, just mix an active dose with the amount of Sprite of choice.Acetaminophen/codeine \(Tylenol With Codeine\) is an inexpensive drug used to treat mild to moderate pain.
