Viagra to go on sale over the counter. People who attempt to buy viagra or treatments for erectile dysfunction online risk wasting their money on costly fakes. So far, Boots is the only pharmacy to have been given such permission. The RPS has developed a logo that will appear on the first page of registered online pharmacies. One recent survey of doctors by the medical newspaper GP found that one in four have treated patients for problems that were caused by internet-bought medicines. Several other newspapers reported the move to make the erectile dysfunction drug available for sale at selected Boots pharmacies. Check the registration status of the pharmacist. Viagra, like all drugs, has potential side effects so patients may need follow-up assessments after they begin taking the drug. Registered pharmacies are obliged to determine whether the medicine is suitable for you through an online consultation. Even if a product on sale is genuine, medicines can interact with each other and many need to be accompanied by safety checks and advice from qualified, regulated clinical staff. Websites that sell prescription-only medicines are likely to be illegal in Great Britain. Boots has been given permission to issue the drug in 29 stores, but only to men who clear a suitability assessment performed by a specially trained pharmacist. Medical professionals, including trained pharmacists, can apply for permission to issue certain drugs under the Patient Group Direction scheme. Check here for alerts.
