Most pharmacies in Thailand have a similar look. It is common for hospital pharmacies to provide only brand name medications but at external pharmacies you can get a cheaper generic alternative. It is also common for pharmacists at a hospital pharmacy to spend more time with the patient, ensuring that they understand the medication and that there will be no interactions with other drugs. Looking after them is an international workforce of 31, people, plus a network of over 1 million hospitals, physicians, clinics and health and wellness specialists worldwide, meaning you have easy access to treatment. At Bupa we have been helping individuals and families live longer, healthier, happier lives for over 60 years. If you are in a hospital and referred to the hospital pharmacy you are not normally given a written prescription, but the doctor will just write down what you need on a scrap of paper. In addition, we have helped develop world-class health systems for governments, corporations and providers around the world. In the towns and cities they are situated every few streets and are usually independent stores rather than chains, although the larger cities do have some pharmacy chains. In rural areas the pharmacies will be few and far between and will also have limited opening hours. We want to be the global leader in delivering world-class health solutions, making quality health care more accessible and empowering people to live healthier lives. We are trusted by expats in different countries and have links with healthcare organisations throughout the world. Today, Cigna has over 71 million customer relationships around the world. Send me notifications related to: You may find that there is not always a qualified pharmacist on the premises, although it is a legal requirement for a qualified pharmacist to be employed in the store. Wherever you are in Thailand you are never too far away from a pharmacy. Some of the larger pharmacies offer competitive prices and there are those which claim to sell at wholesale prices and some certainly are cheaper than others.
