It's the only brand-name drug among the 20 most-dispensed drugs in the U. Pfizer benefited from some lucky timing: Jason Mazzarella , a product manager at IMS Health, thinks that's partly because patients with tight budgets are more likely to go without cholesterol pills than drugs for conditions with obvious symptoms, and generic Lipitor would be more affordable for them. Lipitor's share of statin prescriptions dropped to 9. Figures from data firm IMS Health on prescriptions for Lipitor and competing drugs that lower LDL or bad cholesterol, the class called statins, show the number of Lipitor prescriptions filled in the seven days ended Dec. From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia. While Lipitor and Crestor generate most of the money from cholesterol medicines, much-cheaper generic versions of three older statins - Zocor, Pravachol and Mevacor - account for almost two-thirds of statin prescriptions. All those new patients boosted sales for the whole statin class, particularly Lipitor. In recent years, Pfizer has focused on creating other types of drugs and on another unprecedented strategy this one for hanging onto Lipitor revenue until June, when multiple new generic Lipitor versions will join one sold by Ranbaxy Laboratories and the authorized generic from Watson Pharmaceuticals Inc.
