Even though I take no meds at this time,I have to pick my medicare part D drug insurance,and I am going nuts. The cheap plans have smaller formularies and or their tiers are higher. The mid price plans can have many more drugs on them. God forbid you have to take a drug not on the formulary, there is. On one site I found a 30 day supply of asacol mg for about $ a month, seems to be the cheapest so far. Anyone know any other sites with a better deal? Does anyone's insurance cover ordering from canada if you live in america? Hope everyone is having a good day today. Thanks.
