But as has been discussed many times, generics are no different to brand Name, i would attribute it to either, taste, texture or placebo. Well the pharmacy doesn't choose whether or not I get generic or brand name. This last time I told my mother to send the paper because I figured if it got lost in the mail, I got easily get the script rewritten without problems. I can take up to 5mg a day right now. I am having head pressure again tonight and I started on the old batch of alprazolam. Another unpleasant thought is that the amount of bioavailable alprazolam can vary from "batch to batch", so that in any given bottle of pills, you could be getting a different dosage. Maybe take more of the crummy stuff until the Greenstone appears? Feb 26, - I recently visited drugs dot com, and came across Alprazolam made by Sandoz, with TWO different looks!?! It doesn't have a But Google GG and it's the very first link, says GG - Alprazolam 2mg (on drugs dot com) Do you guys . SANDOZ is already a popular generic brand for Xanax. Oh unahistoriafantastica.com info - - Which Xanax are the most potent? Jul 11, - Has anybody tried more than one generic brand of Xanax or Alprazolam? Which brand do you use or have you used? What differences could you notice between the brands? Which do you prefer? I started using Sandoz brand. I have always been skeptical about the whole anxiety thing and medication but. I have been on xanax for over 20 years and have gone from 3mg. down to mg. and want to reduce further. I get themg. white pills scripted from my pdoc as I want to try breaking them; however, the pharmacy uses SANDOZ generic for years and I have had no problems with this except for my current. I currently am prescribed green stone but this mornday I am planing on getting Sandoz bars from another pharm. Is it worth it? Quicker onset? All pharmacy bars are the same 2 mg unless you're unlucky enough to get a generic batch with 20% less alprazolam. The DEA is federally allowed to leave 20%.
