What was in last week's Insane Joker pouch might not be the same as in the next one. I presume he is cashing in on the recent upsurge in popularity of the triazolo benzos - of which alprazolam is the 'daddy' - fuelled by the RC market. It'll cost roughly the same to support their habit. The benzo scene isn't going anywhere either, although the exact benzos on sale will change. As for the stims: If u can be bothered have a read of this- http: Cant do much about booze being sold but at least benzos are in the hands of the doctors. Some were even specifically useful for medical use and not much else - pyrazolam and diclazepam. But i work with my doctor to manage my use and taper off them when they are no longer needed. The main vendor you are talking off specifically made his name selling Diazepam for years, only recently entering the "Xanax" business, and decided to halt all Diazepam sales, on his own bulk account and to others.
