We leave description blank for your privacy. If I understand your question correctly, you were on metformin, Actos, and insulin, and were experiencing occasional low BG levels. You may ask your doctor if you need more information about this risk. Compazine Dramamine Maxolon Zofran I recently saw the following question: It can occur if you miss a meal, do too many exercises, drink alcohol or are in a stressful situation. If all of the above questions seem unlikely to explain your situation, then you may do better on multiple daily insulin doses, probably of two different types of insulin. Three months later after tripling my insulin trying to keep my levels good, my A1c went up about a point and a half.
