Those who say tram sucks are generally people very quick to jump to conclusions and well However, I can see why people who are more used to strictly sedating opioids would find this less enjoyable. Last edited by Pjkt; at Rather than being a full blown drug addict, I love the balance Tramadol offers. Proudly saying, I've lost a lot. Some people will not use Tramadol, and others say it works wonders for them. Doesnt have the real opiate feel obviously but it does wonders for my mental state even at just mg. I can see why Tramadol might be cast aside as a half ass painkiller but believe me when i say one can get gratuitously merked off it. So any positive comments I make about tramadol are counterbalanced by my hatred of what the stuff can do if it's not used with caution. On the other hand, it's metabolite, o-desmethyl-tramadol is much more potent at u-opioid agonism, and thus is much more effective as a painkiller. This means that mg in one go is less effective than taking 50mg in 5 separate increments spaced out accordingly.
