To prevent kidney stones from forming, drink plenty of liquids while taking Topamax unless your doctor instructs you otherwise. Take Topamax regularly to get the most benefit from it. Dosage is based on your medical condition and response to treatment. Your dose may need to be gradually decreased. Swallow the tablets whole since breaking them may leave a bitter taste. If you are planning pregnancy, become pregnant, or think you may be pregnant, immediately talk to your doctor about the benefits and risks of using Topamax during pregnancy. Rarely, Topamax may cause a very serious eye problem, generally within 1 month of starting treatment. Consult your doctor or pharmacist for more details. Children may be more sensitive to the side effects of Topamax, especially weakened bones, slowed growth rate, and decreased sweating. A very serious allergic reaction to Topamax is rare. If untreated, this eye problem can lead to permanent blindness. How to Use Topamax Read the Medication Guide and, if available, the Patient Information Leaflet provided by your pharmacist before you start taking Topamax and each time you get a refill. Drug interactions may change how your medications work or increase your risk for serious side effects. Your doctor will gradually increase your dose to reduce your risk of side effects. It may harm an unborn baby. Ask your doctor or pharmacist for details. Consult your doctor before breast-feeding. Check the labels on all your medicines such as allergy or cough-and-cold products because they may contain ingredients that cause drowsiness.
