For whatever reason she felt the need to keep pounding into my head that there were all of these extraneous possibilities that could have led to this situation while ignoring the fact that all of them would have involved ME doing these things. I got my phone out and proceeded to waste a good minutes while he kept struggling with the computer. If nothing else I just wanted to get the ball rolling on finding out how this had happened. You flatly denied my request for any kind of information that help me straighten this out and I have no way of knowing when this time limit that I have supposedly violated will expire.
