The Great Kilt Weeb Page actually started when my dad retired, he started sewing kilts and he took a bunch of pictures of himself getting into a great kilt and then traced them. However there is some stuff for the ladies, but still there are a lot of images. Well a little after lunch I thought I could stand to change again, so I slipped away home and returned in a Cotehardie like garment. There are many interesting things that went on before the rise of the Cotehardie. Did you know that a Cotehardie was usually worn under a Houppellande, more cool stuff about these garments are in the site, just click on the icon to the right. It has the additional advantage, since there are so many pictures and graphics in The Weeb Site this weeb page is also a hub gallery of all the garb drawings and pictures. I like to call it Twig-Tossing in the SCA, we use wooden arrows, I have a 45 lb recurve bow and I was pretty good at tossing the twigs. The history of both and how the bubonic plague changed the one into the other. Most people in the SCA have a persona. I'm a little famous for my story of The Great Canadian Wallpaper festival. So now I have this Weeb Page for information about the Landsknechte and the times in which they lived. I'm not saying people walked around in old bags, there were many garments of note in this period.
